“ I remember when Jesse and I were at your house and was riding the dirt bike and Adam convinced me to ride the dirt bike by myself. Even though I never had before cause I'm a 4wheel kind of chick. I did it anyways. I was riding it and Adam told me to ride it down the road and turn around. When I went to turn it around I went over handlebars into a fire ant bed. Thanks Adam for that lol. I also remember us all together playing red rover my moms when she lived next to kellee Byrd and anthony and going to church. So many good memories. Will love and miss you forever. And never forget the times we all had together when life was simple. Love kortni price

“ Because we were here, and you were there, I didn't get to see you grow up, but I remember the first time I met you, Adam ~ you were in your mama's belly and I had just married your uncle. Then, during our first Christmas as a married couple, we got to meet you, and I have to admit, you scared the dickens out of me because you were just so tiny! But so sweet and beautiful, and I fell in love. Be at peace, and know that you are loved dearly, Adam.

“ I knew Adam when we were young. He loved skateboarding with me at New Canaan and thought the sun shined out of my backend. He always had a kind word to say to me. Always lifted my spirits. I was at a party once that was being hosted at his house. I hung out with him and his little brother and when they found out that I collected trading cards they were beyond excited to show me their Digimon card collection. Adam ended up giving me the majority of their cards even though I kept telling that sweet lil guy that he didn't have to give me his stuff. He insisted so I kept them. I like to collect things so they went into my card binder with the rest of my collection. I still have them. Now I'll treasure them forever as a gift from a kind soul who left us too soon.
