“ I was always amazed by Amy’s strength! What I physically & mentally fought each day, seemed like it should be nothing, compared to what Amy had/was going through at times, yet she still always had time for others. Fly pain free now Amy❤️. My prayers are with Amy’s family & friends!

“ So many conversations we had about everything and now your gone.If I had only known I would have stayed up talking to you all night.You girl, are a true fighter.So much you went through.This is so very hard for me as you were a huge part of my fibro group.You always knew how to make me smile when I thought I would die.I miss you so much already. This doesn't even seem real. Even though I hate Bama,I will know when we play them that you are above cheering them on.. texting me about how y'all are going to smooch us😊There will never be another you❤️I love you my dear friend. I know your are pain free and I will see you again someday!
