

Mrs Angelia "Angie" Renia Bolton

June 7, 1973 - January 12, 2024

Mrs. Angelia "Angie" Renia Bolton, age 50, of Crossville, Alabama passed away Friday, January 12, 2024 at Crestwood Medical Center in Huntsville, AL. Angie was born June 7, 1973 in Marshall County, Alabama. She was the daughter of Rex McGee King and Judy Karen Franklin Cundiff. She was born and raised in the Arab community. She and husband, Thomas "Heath" Bolton had been married for over 27 years. She was a nursing assistant in the health care business.

Angie had a natural born love for people. She had a calling and passion for taking care of and meeting the needs of those trusted in her care. In her younger years she thoroughly enjoyed playing softball and has always enjoyed pitching horse shoes. As an animal lover she spoiled her dog, a shihtzu named Briar.

Family members Angie leaves behind to cherish precious memories include: husband, Heath Bolton; father, Rex King; mother, Judy Franklin Cundiff (Robert); son, Jeffery Gorgus; daughter, Krissy Andrews (Chris); sisters, Karen Smith (Joey) and Sandi Cone (Allen); grandchildren, Bailee Andrews, Brantley Andrews and Alyssa Andrews; and a host of nieces, nephews, and great nieces and great nephews.

Friends are invited to join the family on Monday, January 15, 2024 at Arab Heritage Memorial Chapel for a time of visitation from 12:00 pm until 2:00 pm. Funeral services will follow the visitation at 2:00 pm. Brother Phillip Ashley will officiate with Jimmy Duke giving the eulogy. Following the funeral services Angie will be laid to rest in Rice Cemetery. Pallbearers escorting Angie to her final resting place will be Tyler Cone, Dylan Cone, Dylan Woods, Michael Wade Martin, Roger Duke, and Johnny Bolton. Honorary Pallbearers are Chris Andrews, Joey Smith, Connor Foster and Charles Michael Martin.

Tribute Wall

“ I spent most of my childhood with Angie, Sandi, and Karen. Angie was always one of the sweetest and most fun people to be around. I am praying for the family for peace in knowing that we will all meet again one day.
