“ Ann would call me every year on my birthday. Every time I would choke back the tears and thank her when she finished. I don't know how many others she called and blessed on their birthday but I'm sure there were more. She will be missed.

“ Mrs Ann Jackson was a special lady singing and enjoying life. I met her at Union Chapel during a prayer shawl ministry meeting. She loved and worked so hard to make the prayer shawls praying over them not even knowing the recipient, but wanted them healed if it be Gods will! She will be greatly missed. ❤️❤️ Phil & Diane Cousins

“ I love the wonderful woman so much, she is and was a gift from God. Almost every Wednesday when I got off work from Dr. Young’s office I would go to my Moms house and sit with her and Miss Ann would almost always stop if she saw my car, we would sit there for hours and just talk and talk. She would keep saying, well I better go Jessie will be hunting me, and of course we would keep talking!!! Jessie I’m so sorry for your loss.

Annie came and helped me when my yard overgrew. She worked while my grandchildren were here. After a day of chopping down shrubs and vines the kids teased her calling her Miss Annie the dragon slayer. I will always remember her singing in church but also laughing and playing with my grands. She was a very special lady and loved dearly.
