“ My sincerest condolences. I'm just finding out about Ms. McCourt's passing. Today I found a card she sent my mother a LONG time (20 years) ago (2005)! She was always so kind to my mama when others seemed not to be. I remember her children were about the same age as my brother and I. There was a sweet friendship ONLY Military Wives could understand. I'm not exactly sure how they knew each other but I believe it may have been through their husbands at the time. This was in Germany so we didn't have any family close. I love that they stayed in touch throughout the years, even if it was just a card here and there, from time to time. True testament of how friendships change over time but ultimately, I pray they have been reunited in Heaven! Ms. McCourt, as I recall was very pretty. Kind. Caring. Sensitive. Intelligent and I kinda think she had a good sense of humor, although I can't really say why I think this... R.I.P Ms. McCourt 🕊️❤️🔥✨

“ We grew up together, we went to Midway School together, During the Summer we would meet at the Rocky Creek Bridge and would walk to Allens Cross Rds together (this was when highway 231 was still a 2-lane highway) my brother Curtis Oden would let us put a bag of chips and coke each on his credit at the store, we thought we were something! We stayed friends all our lives and mailed birthday cards or called each other on our birthdays. Memories.... Diane Oden Blake
