“ Our classmates could always expect Benny to faithfully attend the '53 class reunions and luncheons, as long as possible. He invited us to his home for organizational meetings at different times. With excitement to visit with all who attended, he also had a Thanksgiving prayer that he was always eager to recite. We shall miss him and his kindness to all of us.

Our thoughts and prayer will continue with Faye and their children.

“ I had the pleasure of getting to meet Mr. Campbell through my friendship with his daughter, Jennifer. Even though he struggled with dementia he would always recite scripture or prayers with us. He even came to one of our small group classes. May God be with Miss Faye and the children during this time.
