“ I will never forget watching Little Bit dig the hole for the swimming pool!!!! On the final dig, they scraped rock but got the depth that was needed.....it was like a celebration by that big 'ole hole that ended up bringing me many years of happiness and fun with family & friends. He was always willing to help and expressed it. I had a basement flood and cleaned out a bunch of junk by myself & he happened to pass by and saw me working and stopped to offer to help & get some help....always looking out for his neighbors. Love you all and will cherish our memories for always.
