married the love of her life, James Everett (Stick) Couch on June 19, 1953 and they were married for 50 years.

Catherine was a faithful Christian and was a member of the First Baptist Church of Guntersville.

She loved attending gospel singings with her husband and devoted much of her time supporting his hobbies, including cooking early morning breakfast for him and his friends before their many was always up for any event that involved her grandchildren.

She enjoyed spending time in the kitchen and always enjoyed having people over for a meal.

She was an officer at the Home Bank in Guntersville and was a prominent figure in getting it established. She was very proud to have been a part of it and was recognized throughout the community.

She is survived by her daughter, Diane (Phil) Harris, grandchildren, Corey (Whitney) Harris, and

Cati (Grayson Gilliland) Harris, great grandson Everett Harris, and godson Zack Holmes. She

“ I loved Catherine like a second mom! She was so good to me growing up and gave the best hugs! She was always sweet, fun, patient and kind! I spent a lot of time at her house as a little kid and she and Diane spent time at mine! When I'd run into her in town in later years, it was always so special to get to talk to her. I named my oldest daughter after her. Sorry for your loss. Hugs and love to the whole family. Gina
