“ I've not had any of the right words for any of the questions so far but someone close to us shared this poem with me and it has helped greatly.

THE DASH

By Linda Ellis

*I read of a man who stood to speak
At the funeral of a friend.
He referred to the dates on the tombstone
From the beginning...to the end.*

*He noted that first came the date of birth
And spoke the following date with tears,
But he said what mattered most of all
Was the dash between those years.*

*For that dash represents all the time
That they spent alive on earth.
And now only those who loved them
Know what that little line is worth.*

*For it matters not, how much we own,
The cars...the house...the cash.
What matters is how we live and love
And how we spend our dash.*

*So, think about this long and hard.
Are there things you'd like to change?
For you never know how much time is left
That can still be rearranged.*

*If we could just slow down enough
To consider what's true and real
And always try to understand
The way other people feel.*

*And be less quick to anger
And show appreciation more
And love the people in our lives
Like we've never loved before.*

*If we treat each other with respect
And more often wear a smile,
Remembering this special dash
Might only last a little while*

*So, when your eulogy is being read,
With your life's actions to rehash...
Would you be proud of the things they say
About how you spent YOUR dash?*

10/2/1987 - 2/8/2026

I believe you were as proud of your dash as I am. You lived it perfectly and purposefully every day. I am just thankful you allowed me to be a part of your dash and you'll forever be a part of mine. I love you a WHOLE BUNCH pretty girl!

“ I only got to know Tanna a short while and she made a big impact on me from day 1 we clicked very well and I knew then I had me a best friend. I enjoyed everything time we were together playing games, puzzles, skating or just taking a walk in the park to look at Christmas lights then run away from the grinch 😭. She had an amazing smile and could make you laugh even when u didnt want to. She had a heart of gold helping anyone she could. She wasnt afraid to speak her mind or hesitate to ask if you were ok or needed anything she always reached out and showed up. I will forever miss her but I will always cherish the time I had bc she is my best friend and helped me through more than she realized. I love you Tanna and its only weird if you make it weird 🍷💙💜🍷

“ We were never ones who enjoyed taking our pictures, and now I wish we had taken a million. I don't have the breadth of language adequate enough to describe how much your light is already missed, but it can never be snuffed out. The mark you left on us all has created a permanent imprint that can never be erased. I will think of you at every campfire, and hear your laugh in the trees when I hike. You are always in my heart. Rest easy sweet girl. Till we see you again.

“ I enjoyed my brief time working with Tanna. Despite us not talking much more than surface level it was always clear she was golden. Her smile and laugh were always near the surface and she was genuinely kind. She never failed to draw out a smile if I saw her on a rough day. She was a radiant woman that I will never forget.

“ Tanna was one of the smartest, kindest, bravest women I had the pleasure of knowing and was a wonderful role model to me. She always made sure to make me feel like I was apart of her family. Some of my favorite memories I had of her was when she took me out kayaking and camping. She always loved the outdoors and a good adventure. I am so happy to have known and love her and proud to call her my other mom.

Thoughts and prayers to all the family. Tanna was one of the sweetest and kindest individuals I had the pleasure of getting to know while working at Sanmina. She was raw, down to earth and her presence just lit up the room. She was always so encouraging. She would always say Don't let it get you "We got this". RIP sweet girl.
