“ There will never be another Chris Davis! Chris was one of the greatest people I've had the privilege to know, to work with and to learn from! He was a perfect example of someone who strives for excellence and he was also always so full of wisdom. He was always sharing with us either a funny story or a story with a valuable life lesson.

I'm so grateful to have gotten to work with and to know Chris Davis! We will all miss Chris so so much and will never forget him.

Sending my prayers, thoughts and love to Julie and Amber and all of the family !

“ Chris was so patient with me when I came back to Birmingham and became a CM down here. He was always kind, always funny and laughing. He made you feel calm in very stressful waters situations! He was all about taking care of the patients first. He made me remember that was first priority in all we do. He taught me many different water systems and guided me through a 100 different action plans He was also a good friend. He always listened to my issues without judgement and we always talked about our family. He was one of a kind! You are missed my friend.

“ Chris was the standard many of us who worked with him tried to follow. They don't make folks like him very often. He was always available to lend a hand or an ear regardless of what you needed. He was a great co-worker and an even better friend we will miss you Chris

What a huge loss for all of us. Chris was a very special, wonderful person and will be missed deeply. I still can't comprehend that this happened. Even though we didn't see each other in person anymore after the reorg, we kept in touch and talked frequently. I'm already missing those calls. Our thoughts and prayers to the entire family. May beautiful memories that you share help sustain you during this time of sadness, and may they make the pain easier to bear.

I went through school and graduated with Chris at Clintwood High School in Virginia. He was at most of my birthday parties as a child. He was a friend and a wonderful person. Based on all the comments of his friends and colleagues he did not change a bit from the sweet and wonderful person I grew up with. My deepest condolences to his entire family. Tim Baker
