“ Chase, I loved your mother as a students parent and a good one and most of all a friend. I loved our long talks and the good suggestions she was freely giving. I am so sorry I cannot attend her visitation or funeral. I would be there if I could but have sickness in the family. This is a great loss not only for you and your family but for the world in general! Love you Chase!

“ I met Cindy at their carpet store. I have done business with them lots of times and most always dealt with Cindy or her mom. Even if Cindy wasn't having to help me in the store she always went out of her way to come over and speak. My heart just really aches for their entire family they are all such a pleasant down to earth happy family that seemed like they stuck together. I will miss seeing her. She was so sweet and fun to talk to the kind of person you hunt down when you needed a smile. She always seemed to have one for you even when she wasn't feeling good herself. Along with that smile would be a story about something . Great person great family. You will all be in my prayers. Just know she is resting easy tonight without a doubt.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of my time with Cindy when we little cousins growing up together and just having fun being little country girls. I loved spending time at her house where her mom taught us how to fold a fitted sheet and make homemade pancake syrup and so many other things. We probably played hundreds of games of High Ho! Cherry-O. We loved watching her little brother Greg who somehow managed to survive our lack of babysitting skills. It's entirely possible that we hold the record for catching the most frogs at Thomas's pond. I will miss Cindy and always hold those memories in my heart.

“ Before her health prevented her, she was very involved in church activities and made an effort to be a blessing to those she could. Our loss is heaven's gain.
