March 20, 1944 - June 5, 2026

Davis Wing Van Zandt, age 82, of the Union Hill community in Morgan County Alabama, passed away on Friday June 5, 2026, at Huntsville Hospital. Davis was born on March 20, 1944, in Knox County Tennessee. Davis was the son of Mitchell Leon Van Zandt and Alice Elvira Van Zandt.

Davis worked for many years for Jesse Stutts Inc as an electrician. And he would use his trade to do electrical work for his friends and neighbors. He was always ready and willing to help anyone who needed help of any kind. For the last several years, he and his neighbor Susan Chasteen, worked at the farm of Beverly Akeh in Lacey's Spring, taking care of her animals. He would always have something to give to them to see their little faces light up.

Davis is survived by his sister Mitcheleen Nordstrom and his brother Fred Van Zandt. He was also survived by many nieces, nephews, family and friends.

Davis was preceded in death by his parents, Mitchell Leon Van Zandt and Alice Elvira Van Zandt and his wife Dorothy Smallwood Van Zandt.

“ Uncle Davis was THE ONE who knew exactly what I needed when I visited Tutweiler many years ago. Every single month he wrote me a little note that said "Smile 😊" and he always enclosed $300. That was LIFE CHANGING. When I was released he was sitting at the back gate to pick me up. He was by far THE BEST uncle for many reasons. I loved the fun times we had together....
