“ I love you so much nana and always will! You taught me how to ride the gator, cook, clean, fix my hair, love my surroundings, sing, read and always go to church! I've been getting so many phone calls! Daysha said it was an honor to get to do ur hair for you! I've heard so many story about you lately! I still can't believe your really and truly gone! I love you! It's been a long day without you my friend and tell you all about it when I see you again! Isiah 40:31! I miss you dearly!

“ Love the story about the banana popsicles Keith used to hide from you. And the story about the knife challenge where Keith centered his big toe cause he would not let you beat him. The best one is when you rode your bycicle and tied strings around your wrist, stood up on the seat and tried to steer while standing. Needless to say you ended up in the bushes. I'll miss your delicious syrup cakes. Oh what good times we had playing Rook till 3 and 4 in the morning then sleeping till lunch while the guys went to the Frosty Freeze. Basically, I'll just miss good hearted, gullible, hilarious, loves everybody, Deb. I'll always love you like a sister. See you on the other side! Richann

“ Still can't believe you're really gone! You were the one that taught me how to blow a bubble, play Nintendo, ride a 4- wheeler, and play cards. I'll never be able to watch "Cheers" eat tea cakes, chocolate and biscuits or play "beauty shop" my girls without thinking of you. You were so loved and will not be forgotten. We will see each other again one day and until then Love- E!
