In the words of Ralph Waldo Emerson “to laugh often and much...”. and “to know that one life has breathed easier because you lived here, this is to have succeeded”. You kept that quote taped on the inside of your kitchen cabinet. So many lives have breathed easier because you lived, including mine. You had the sweetest servant’s heart and you served so joyfully. I will miss your laughter; thank you for teaching me to laugh often and much. Precious mother, we are not saying goodbye, it’s just goodnight, for we will see you in the morning. All because our Savior has prepared a place for all who have believed. Thank you for the life of faith, and love of Jesus, that you lived.

Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his faithful servants. Psalm 116:15”

“ Doris lived near my parents (Grace and Bufford Light) for many years in Arab on Friendship Rd. Doris was a very good neighbor to mom and dad. My mother always had good things to say about Doris and enjoyed her special home cooked meals she shared with mom and dad. That has been a long time ago. May God comfort you in a special way.
