“Sheila, your present vacant feeling, the wind knocked out of you, the ache in your heart and complete exhaustion I share with you. Langdon has now been gone for 6 months and I can tell you, be patient with yourself, rest when you can, keep Randy "alive" recalling great times together when you are alone and with family. Had I been able I would have been there today. I love you and thank God for knowing Randy and you for all these years. Rest in the knowledge God holds you in his hand.
