

Elbert Loid Parsons Sr.

May 30, 1941 - January 20, 2026

Mr. Elbert Loid Parsons, Sr., a respected member of the Pine Ridge Community in Morgan County, Alabama, passed away on Tuesday, January 20, 2026, at Huntsville Hospital. Born on May 30, 1941, in Capshaw, Alabama, Elbert was a beloved son of Wildred (Bill) Kemuel Parsons and Dovie Mae Lewter Parsons. Throughout his life, Elbert worked diligently in the construction industry, serving as a superintendent, and also served as a lay minister with the Church of God.

Elbert was a man of many talents and a devoted family man, remembered as a wonderful father and great-grandfather. He studied and taught the Bible with dedication and was known for ministering to others through acts of kindness and help. Elbert found joy in the outdoors, particularly in deer and coon hunting, fishing, and observing wildlife in state parks.

Family members Elbert leaves behind to cherish their memories include his sons, Alton (Kenny) Kemuel Parsons (Dianna), Darrell L. Parsons, and Patrick “Andy” Parsons (Carrie); eleven grandchildren; sixteen great-grandchildren; brother, Charles Franklin Parsons (Nancy); and sisters, Helen Reeves and Hazel Wilbanks (John).

He was preceded in death by his loving wife of 59 years, Ella Louise Parsons; parents, Wildred "Bill" and Dovie Mae Parsons, and his son, Elbert Loid Parsons, Jr.

A Memorial Service for Mr. Parsons will be held at Brindlee Mountain Chapel in Morgan City on Saturday, February 28, 2026. The service will begin at 2:00 PM, with a short visitation an hour prior at 1:00 PM. The family is deeply grateful for all the prayers and condolences received and kindly requests that, in lieu of flowers, friends honor Elbert's memory by helping someone in need and paying it forward.

Arab Heritage Memorial Chapel is entrusted with arrangements.

“ I wasn't close to the Parson family, but my dad (Billy Long) enjoyed his company. My grandparents were Kathrine Hodges and Eugene Hodges, and I remember being at family reunions with many Parson when i was little. We went to Louisiana to Kemuals place when I was young I believe. (been a long time ago) I've heard a lot about Bud, and I know his family and friends will miss him dearly. Ellis Long
