“ Ann, you have my deepest condolences in the passing of your mother. I know how you you were looking forward to spending time with her now that you have moved back to Alabama. I'm sure she enjoyed the short time that you did get to spend together. She was such a beautiful lady. You were blessed to have her in your life for so many years. I'm sorry that I can't be there with you but you will be in my prayers. Patti
