

Frances Marjorie Robertson

December 4, 1925 - April 16, 2026

Frances Marjorie Robertson, of Arab, Alabama, passed away peacefully on April 16, 2026, at the age of 100. She was born on December 4, 1925, and lived a long, full life rooted in faith, family, and simple joys.

Frances was a woman of deep love and devotion. She loved the Lord with all her heart, and that faith guided her life and the way she cared for those around her. She found happiness in the warmth of her kitchen, where she spent countless hours cooking and baking for the people she loved. Known for her sweet tooth, she especially enjoyed making and sharing desserts. She also found joy in fishing, playing cards, gardening, and canning—cherished pastimes that reflected her appreciation for both nature and togetherness. Family meant everything to Frances. She treasured family gatherings, where laughter and stories were shared, and she created lasting memories on trips to the Smoky Mountains. In quieter moments, she enjoyed relaxing with her favorite game shows, especially Wheel of Fortune, which she watched faithfully.

Frances made Arab her home in 1998 after moving from Huntsville, and she became a beloved presence in her community.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Ada Smith and John Luther Smith; her husbands, John Elmer Burgett and Edward Robinson; her sons, Cecil Burgett, Charles Elmer Burgett, and Charles Lee Burgett; and several brothers and sisters.

She is survived by her loving children: her son, Tim Burgett; her daughters,

Carrie Stover (Jodie) and Virginia Victoria Hollingsworth. She also leaves behind six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren, all of whom carry forward her legacy of love, strength, and faith.

Frances will be remembered for her kind heart, her unwavering faith, and the love she gave so freely to her family and friends. Her life was a testament to the beauty of simple pleasures and the enduring strength of family bonds. She will be deeply missed and forever cherished.
