“ Mr McNeal and his boys were a very positive influence on me when I got a chance to be around them at the motorcycle events. Their can do attitude was always present and they all seemed to push each other to be the best without being too busy to help a rookie rider and give some great advice. Thanks for all you did Mr McNeal..

“ I remember how Glenn used to bring Cherie to the fellowship hall every Sunday morning for Sunday school. He would help her out of the car and into the church. He showed his love for her. A trait far more important than just saying I love you. I hope i can be half the man you are Glenn. God Bless!

“ My best memory of your daddy was that of my diving coach in the mid 60's. He became my boss in the mid 80's. During an interview for his retirement I told the interviewer that I'm sure I am supposed to say he was a better boss than a diving coach but I wasn't sure I believed it. No way you can compare the two. He was a great man in both capacities and I am praying for his much loved family.

My first memory of Glenn was when i worked for his son at Piggly Wiggly in Arab, AL. I also worked with his grand daughter, Tammy, i had invited her to church. His son (my boss) introduced me to him, few weeks passed & Glenn thanked me for the influence i had made in Tammy's life. Few years later my family i joined the church at the invite of other friends, where Glenn & Cherrie were also members. We sat right in front of them during worship services, I'll never forget during those services how his voice behind me during songs, prayers & other things was so sincere. I want to thank him for the sincerity of love for God & his family he showed me all those years ago just by saying thanks for inviting someone to church. Never thought about how an invite to church could make so much difference in some one elses life (besides the one you invite) until Glenn. He prayed, loved, worked, cared for not just his family but friends too. God needed him as another angel watching over us.

Linn and I are so sad to hear of Glenn's passing. He was always a delight and he was such a blessing to Mr. Brannon who was in his Sunday School class for many years. I also knew Glenn from work at SAMD in foreign military sales. I can still see him hurrying up and down the hallway to get his job done as division chief. We will miss him dearly. God bless you, Sherie, and your entire family.

Always knew Mr. McNeal, but had come to know him particularly better these last few years. Came to really adore and respect him even more. He was always positive and upbeat, and. Uplifting toward others. Always had a good things to say about people. He really accentuated the positive. That made him a delight to be around. Always enjoyed seeing him coming, and having a word with him. He truly loved his family. And I know he loved all in his extended world, his church, co-workers, and community in general. He did some great work for RSVP most recently. A dear man. Sad to lose him. But I'm glad his suffering. Is over. My thoughts, prayers and. Blessings go out to all the McNeal family. — Alan Miller
