“ I followed John & Hilda From Georgia to Bartow Florida, to Alabama, to Fairbanks Alaska,, & back to Arab Alabama. Due to John's construction career they were never hesitant to move & try new adventures. Hilda finally told John I'm not leaving Arab as it's my home. So he made her a big home on several acres of land. He built Mrs. Lee a home just across the little creek. That's where she lived with her garden & Family until a Nursing Home & Hilda's daily visits & care. Someone pulled up into their yard & said " can we look at your home.?" Yes, but not for sale. Price was right so It was sold. It's unique how the acres of land got split up for a family development. Hilda always had the good ole Southern hospitality & oh so delicious table full of yummy food. Never went away hungry. I told John "God knew he needed a stern wife." His reply was & "He blessed me with the best one He had without her, I wouldn't have made it". Scales cannot weigh the Love Hilda had tucked into her heart, mind, body, & soul. Love & now will live my life in order that I'll be able to follow Hilda to Heaven some day. <3 Edith Fynbu
