“ Our dear, Hollie. We loved you like you were our own. Boy, did you have some stories to share. Eugene feels he learned so much from you when it comes to cattle. Working with you at the auction was a joy for him. He was always amazed at your agility. He would say things like, "That Hollie Cooper can run rings around those young kids". I know you have missed your dear wife, Hazel, but you can now laugh together while walking hand in hand with her today. It has been a pleasure having you in our lives. Rest in peace, dear friend. We will see you again.
