“ Houston was a genuine, hard-working and honest man and a gracious Uncle. I have many fond memories of how he gifted his precious time to myself and his children in the midst of running a large farm - taking us out on the Tennessee River (and trying to teach me to water-ski), letting me ride with him in the combine on the farm at Beanrock, or preparing a delicious fish fry for the family - complete with his mother's homemade hush-puppies. We will miss you...

“ Houston was a very dear friend. We shared a lot of time together for more than 50 years. We talked just a few days ago about our friendship. He shared with me that he was at peace, that made me rejoice. Rest well Brother, the work is done 🙏
