“ Mr Gibson was a very nice person. I got to know him when my husband Richard worked with his son Joseph. Me and my mom (who is 82) was at his place buying sausage a week from Christmas. He had so much fun talking about the old days to my mom because she knew exactly what he was talking about. Those were the poor days and all the family had to pull their weight just so there was food on the table. He was definitely a hard worker and never treated anyone unfairly. Mr Gibson is gonna be missed by so many people.
