

Mr. Howard Lavonne McBrayer

February 23, 1942 - November 21, 2025

Howard Lavonne McBrayer, age 83, of Huskey Mountain in Laceys Spring, Alabama, passed away peacefully at his home midday on Friday, November 22, 2025. Born February 23, 1942, in Walker County, Alabama, Howard was the beloved son of the late Herman Luther McBrayer and Eunice Opal Morgan McBrayer.

Howard was a devoted husband to Tracie F. McBrayer. He was a respected computer programmer at Redstone Arsenal, where his expertise was appreciated. Howard was known for his kindheartedness and compassion. He was one of the first to offer help whenever he saw someone in need, and he had a talent for turning new acquaintances into good friends.

Howard found joy in operating his ham radio, connecting with people from all corners of the globe. Before health issues limited his activities, he was an avid outdoorsman and loved to hunt and spend time in nature.

He is survived by his loving wife, Tracie F. McBrayer; his son, Greg Vincent (Valerie); five grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; and his sister, Juanel Self. Howard was preceded in death by his parents, Herman Luther and Eunice Morgan McBrayer; his son, Brian McBrayer; his daughter, Ginger Vincent; and his brothers, Harold McBrayer and Buster McBrayer.

Services for Howard will be Tuesday, November 25, 2025 at Brindlee Mountain Chapel in Morgan City, AL. Family and friends will gather for visitation at 10:00am with the funeral service at 11:00am. Jonathan Plunkett will be officiating. Burial will be in the Union Grove Cemetery in Morgan County. Serving as pallbearers are Greg Vincent, Gregory Cooley and Randall Boles. Arab Heritage Memorial Chapel is entrusted with arrangements.
