“ Ila was a mom and grandmother to me and my children. She came into our lives when she married my dad Dewey Plunkett.

She was a wonderful, generous, kind, loving person and a GREAT cook.

These two pictures show some of the great times she had. The pne picture was taken the day Greg and I took Ila to pick peaches. It was a beautiful day and we had so much fun.

Ila we miss you and loved you so much and we know that you are now in a better place, having a beautiful reunion in heaven.

Love, Gail, Elisa, Nathan Cervantez
