“ Why is it that the good guys always get taken way to early? I lost the best co-father/husband-in-law a man could ever hope to find. Jay was a solid, loving and hard working man. He was everything I could have ever hoped for to come into Lori and Brett's life. He was usually quiet and unassuming but reliable and solid as it seems to be with all great men. I want to be thankful for the years of friendship, co-parenting and fun, but I surely wanted many more of those years. I'll never understand why the best among us are taken so soon. I don't typically hold people in high regard because most people will disappoint and let you down. I held Jay in the highest regard because he was without question deserving of the utmost regard and respect. We are all better for having had Jay in our lives. Lori, I love you and will be here in any capacity you need always.

“ Thank you, Jack, for all your years of service to us and our customers. You were definitely one of the best. Thank you, Lori, for your support and loyalty. Jack will be missed by many.

We regret we will not be able to attend the services for Jack. We have made a commitment that involves several persons for this Saturday at noon for a missionary returning to China. We are here should you ever need us.
