“ I loved sitting on the porch and listening to pop tell stories about being in the service. He always had great advice. I will miss him terribly, but I know God has him now. I'm sorry for your loss, and happy for heavens gain.

“ Bossy was my beloved Uncle. Always smiling and full of fun. He enjoyed children so much. I recall that he always pulled a chair up to the sink and let the kids "wash" the dishes, never complaining over a broken dish or water on the floor. So patient, so kind and so loved!
