“ I fondly remember James as a special person that came into my life before he was married to Lila. I was engaged to James for a very short time. I lied to James only one time when we were dating. I broke up with him and told him I didn't love him anymore. That was a total lie. I have always loved him and regretted breaking up with him. James had a much better life married to Lila, more than what I could have given him. I have always loved him and still do. Lila if there's anything I can do anything to help you and your family, please let me know. My email address is blpa_28@yahoo.com. My husband died in 2006 . Please let me hear from you. Sincerely,
Barbara Pate Arant.
