“ Jaime was my best friend for many years, even when we were far apart. Jaime was the kind of person where once you were a part of her world, it was forever, no matter what. We had so many fun times in Virginia, pool parties, dancing, family time, she even brought my into the fold with her mom. Her kids and my daughter spent many years growing together and she helped me when my mom passed away. Jaime's death will leave a hole in my heart noone else will fill.
