“ I worked with Janie in the Communications Department at Marshall Space Flight Center. She was a pleasure to work with. We often went to lunch with our co-worker Angela Storey. Janie especially liked it when I gave her the lunch I had so I could go out to lunch. I usually had a salad, and I added anything that was left over in my refrigerator. She said my salads "had a surprise in every bite." I've missed working with her. My condolences and prayers to her family and friends. Debra Valine
