“ Jeff was the first person I saw everyday coming into work; he checked our badges coming into work; always happy, always smiling and always said good morning asked me and others how we are doing. This morning, coming into the building his chair was empty... What a great man- Jeff. What a wonderful spirit. Ill miss you Jeff, thank you for your service at Redstone. Godspeed. Im praying for your family as they cope with this difficult time.

“ We all hope that we add something positive to someone else's life each day, but we're not always successful. Jeff succeeded to do that every single day for hundreds of people. His kind words, smiles, and witty comebacks are legendary. He will be missed – but St. Peter has the perfect assistant at the pearly gates! God bless you, Jeff! Your family is in my prayers.

“ I just recently got to know Mr. Jeff through my daily work here at the Sparkman center and never once did he not have something good or comical to say. It is truly a sad, sad day for us to lose a member of our Sparkman Center Family so suddenly! That desk at the front door will never be the same. My wife and I share our deepest sincerest condolences with the family and to everyone who knew this amazing man! Jeff Tanner, you will be sorely missed Sir!
