

Jeremiah Ray Sivley

September 27, 2001 - December 24, 2025

Jeremiah Ray Sivley, age 24, of the New Canaan Community in Cullman County, passed away on Wednesday, December 24, 2025, at Marshall Medical Center North. Born September 27, 2001, in Cullman, AL. Jeremiah was the cherished son of Christopher Ray Sivley and Jennifer Butcher Sivley. He graduated from Arab High School with the class of 2020, earned his associate's degree, and was employed as a machinist with Orchid.

Jeremiah also worked as a deck hand on the barge Delfred Romero, traveling between Texas and Louisiana. He started training the year long program to become a certified tankerman, which he managed to complete in 6 months. His training continued and within 6-8 months had passed the Coast Guard Test and became a part of Enterprise Marine. He had earned the Gold Zero Award and the Gold Star Award, both for safety, excellence, innovation and outstanding service. Jeremiah was of the Baptist faith. He found joy in hard work and spent his free time fishing, riding motorcycles, and enjoying 4-wheelers and ATVs.

He is survived by his father, Christopher Ray Sivley; grandmother, Deborah K. Sivley; brother, Brandon Wade Sivley; grandfather, Jimmy Ray "Pop" Sivley (Brenda); uncles, Blake Sivley and Brad Silvey; cousins, Braley, Aiden, Kayden and Colby; and his closest friends, Nicholas Robichaux, Alyson Robichaux (Alvin), Kyle Hanson, Elizabeth Robichaux, and Judy Hastings. In accordance with the family's wishes, cremation has been chosen. A memorial service to honor Jeremiah will be at The Old Greenhouse in Arab, Alabama on January 10, 2026 at 1:00PM.

. Arab Heritage Memorial Chapel is assisting the family with arrangements.
