

Ms Joyce Solley Johnson

July 9, 1933 - February 26, 2026

Ms. Joyce Solley Johnson, age 92, of Arab, Alabama, passed away peacefully on Thursday, February 26, 2026, at Hanceville Health and Rehab. Born July 9, 1933, in Cullman County, Alabama, Joyce was a daughter of William Douglas Solley and Clara G. Harper Solley. She was married to the late Ralph Byron Johnson, who preceded her in death in 2014. Joyce was a devoted member of the Arab Church of Christ and enjoyed a career working in retail sales.

Joyce delighted in spending time with family and friends, especially while playing rook—a pastime that brought her both entertainment and friendly competition. She took immense pride in her yard, dedicating countless hours to its care and beauty, and her efforts were recognized with a yard beautification award.

She is survived by her son, Randy Johnson (Karen); daughter, Lisa Ciobota; grandchildren, Hannah Stark (Jay), Sarah White (Philip), Andrew Johnson, and Candace Rigdon (Josh); ten great-grandchildren; and her brother, Ray Solley (Linda).

Joyce was preceded in death by her husband, Ralph Johnson; her parents, William and Clara Solley; brothers, LaVon Solley, Travis Solley, and Ronnie Solley; and her sister, Doris Solley Chapman.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday, March 3, 2026, at Arab Heritage Memorial Chapel. Visitation with the family will begin at 12:00 noon, followed by the funeral service at 1:00 PM, with Brother Ken Tyler officiating. Serving as pallbearers are Andrew Johnson, Jay Stark, Philip White, Josh Rigdon, Todd Tyler and Tom Self. Burial will follow at Gilliam Springs Cemetery. Arab Heritage Memorial Chapel is assisting the family with arrangements.
