“ So very sorry my sweet brother you are without our Precious Lisa. You always say you are going to miss her smile, it was so beautiful. I imagine that look on her face as she came face to face with Jesus. I will miss my sweet Sister forever. I love you lots. Gina.

“ Norris, praying for God to wrap you and your family in His love and peace as you go through this difficult time. I will always remember Lisa sending me a message letting me know she was praying for my granddaughter as she herself was going through her own illness. It touched my heart so much. What a blessing to have known her.

“ Life is a cycle as one comes along, where we're captured by kind ways and a smile.

Sharing love, since childhood, being bubbly and sweet; though she'd only be here for a while.

Our pain gets so hard, when we have to let go, our days gets lost in a fog.

We have to give praises for the fight our girl fought, to the moment that she left with God.

Memories becomes the new life in our hearts, they have never been so close, you can hear them.

As for tears that we cry, they sporadically come, as we can hear in our memory, her cheering.

Be it for a new birth that she kissed gently and welcomed;

Or huge hugs for her big teddy bear seaming ten feet tall.

With a love that embraced life with passion, she gave love, enough for us all.

God blessed you dear lady, in your faith, you taught strength through God's love.

Though to us, we feel life is ending with you, but your mansion, God has prepared up above.

We love you sweet Lisa.

God's peace rest and abides in you now.

No more sickness, no more pain, a life worthy to take your bow.

Iris Scott.

You will be truly missed. It was an honor to know your love. It was an honor to share mine with you.
