“ I have known Katie since before she and Mickey married. In our young years we dated together and each of us married our loves. Our young adult years was a continuation of the fun we had together. In all the years I never heard Katie say anything bad about anyone or raise her voice to anyone. I loved her southern drawl. Mickey I am so sorry that I am not able to pay my final respects to her and to be with you. I have you and the family in my prayers and will be thinking of you as you adjust your life without her. I loved Katie.

“ My heart is broken. Katie was such a wonderful person. She was the best aunt possible, beautiful inside and out. She was always a pleasure to be around, and the first one there when needed. We will all miss her so much. Heaven will be even better now with her presence. Rest in peace sweet lady.
