

Mrs. Katie "Renee" Peace Johnston

March 9, 1962 - April 28, 2023

Katie "Renee" Peace Johnston, age 61, passed away Friday, April 28, 2023 at her residence.

Renee was born on March 9, 1962 in Brewton, Alabama, to R.B. Peace and Sarah Louise Batts Peace. She was married to James "Rocky" Dillard Johnston, Jr. for thirty-five years. Renee was a resident of the Morgan City area. She was a faithful member of Highland Baptist Church where she served as the church pianist and taught children's Sunday School for over 20 years. After teaching in private elementary schools, Katie was employed by the Morgan County Commission on Aging as a Senior Center director. She thoroughly enjoyed her work at various senior centers and loved her involvement with the patrons who became an extended family. Renee was also a big fan of Blue-grass music and many weekends could be found at a singing or a festival somewhere; and, of course, there was Alabama football. Renee loved everyone she met and had made many, many friends, not only in the surrounding communities, but in many other states as well.

Renee is survived by her loving husband, James "Rocky" Johnston, Jr. and her two aunts, Hazel Grubbs and Alma Batts.

Renee is preceded in death by parents, R. B. and Sarah Batts Peace and her brother, George Peace.

Visitation is planned at the Brindlee Mountain Chapel Funeral Home in Lacey's Spring, Alabama on Thursday, May 4, 2023 from 12:00-2:00 p.m. with the service following at 2:00 p.m. Interment will be at Highland Cemetery in Morgan County. The service will be officiated by Brother Craye Hall and Brother Freddie Childs.

“ I met Mrs. Renee Johnston with her husband and my longtime friend James. We both had our wives with us when we were deciding to get other college degree. She was a very lovely and sweet lady and she was a very supportive wife! I used to tell James at work while he was on the phone with Renee. Please tell her to give me that recipe 😊
Brother James, I loved you both ❤️🙏.
Stay strong in the Lord because He is never wrong ever. All our time here on earth is numbered.

“ Miss Renee,
You were one of the most sweetest ladies that I have ever met..
I remember the first time that I ever got to talk to you outside of Church was the first Christmas I had my three grandchildren living with me and you brought them a whole car full of Christmas presents already wrapped and everything..
I couldn't believe that all those presents were all for them and you assured me they were..
I love you Miss Renee and Highland Baptist won't seem the same..
But I know you are with your sweet Mama and with God and one day when I leave this world we will meet again!!!

I will miss you wholeheartedly. But I know that you're at peace and for that I'm happy. You were just the sweetest person I've ever met. Rest
In Paradise
