“ Dear Mr. and Mrs. Martin,
I was very sorry to hear about your loss. I know you will miss your son very much, as well as cherish the many memories. It is times like these that we need comfort and support, and I look to God's Word for both. I find scriptures such as 2Corinthians 1:3,4 which shows how the "God of all comfort" will give you the courage and the strength to cope. Psalms 55:22 assures us of God's love by encouraging us to throw all of our burdens on him, and both John 11:25 and Acts 24:15 speaks about the resurrection hope, and finally Revelation 21:4 says that soon "Death will be no more" I hope these scriptures help you as they have for me. My thoughts and prayers will be with you in this most difficult time.

“ I was shocked and saddened when I heard of Kyle's passing last night as I was watching the news. Kyle was one of my 6th grade students during the very first year that I taught school. My thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends during this difficult time.

“ Remembering Kyle-

Missing Kyle already. Can't believe we won't have him here again, in person anyway. I was always the 5th wheel , Alisha always had to take me along when you went somewhere fun. Disney World, Space Mountain, Busch Gardens, Panama City Beach, Gatlinburg, Sea World, Wet N Wild, etc I was always there tagging along with Alisha. That's what happens when you have a late in life kid and the parents are too old to do the fun stuff, siblings have to step up to the plate and take the little brother everywhere they go. I have a lot of memories of Kyle, he was fun, fast and furious type. We went to his motorcycle meets, watched from the stands. Always ready to take a chance, going too fast, going too high, pushing the envelope. Everybody else talks about how smart he is, I knew him as fun. Was looking forward to showing Kyle my new truck, he would be proud. Hate the little nephew he talked about is not going to get to go all the places I did with Kyle. I'll be here to tell him about his Uncle Kyle. Kyle gave me his old phone and number, 256 550 2376, feel free to call anytime. Kyle's Friend, Chris Merriman (Alisha's Youngest Brother)

“ Dear Kyle,

I have so many memories of you...Which one do I want to share? You have been a part of our lives all through Alisha's high school and college years. Five years of sharing Christmas dinners, every vacation we went on, you were there too, every party and event you were there with your own duties, just being a part of our family. You were there when we started our little (1 man home business) Water Divine Minerals, labeling our blank bottles, playing bag boy into the wee hours of the night. You were the smartest kid I ever met, knew the most about anything and everything, especially those statistics stuff that didn't matter. But, when it came to the scriptures you understood, studied hard and were the best Bible Code student I ever had. You understood wild and crazy "out of the norm" things, like quantum physics, true Biblical history plus James Bond kind of stuff. You are so unique, smart too. I remember when you took the ASFAB at Brewer, the military wanted you, bad. Bad enough to visit, beg and make big promises. They said you had the highest point in the State. You said you didn't like to be told what to do, so No! I always told you if you had a million dollars, you would waste it on cars, cars, cars. You loved those old cars. You had a terrible diet, junk food, hamburgers with nothing on it, just meat and bread. Yuk! And send it back if they put anything on it, like mayo, catsup or mustard. Your smart mouth, I'm missing it already. We could always count on you to just say, what we were wanting to say, but held back desiring to be couth. You didn't sugar coat anything. You used to say, "I hate stupid!"

I planted 288 water melon plants in a new garden, we call the Kyle Martin Garden because my mind wasn't on the garden, it was recollecting my memories of you. When I go into Walt's bathroom, I appreciate your great talent in fancying up a cheap tile job. Kyle, your memory will always be deeply imbedded in my heart. We will love you forever.

I'll miss you, Kylo, you are the brightest and the best that ever came out of Brewer High School. Forever, until we meet again, Kathy Merriman (Alisha's Mom)

“ You were uncle Kyle-O to my children. When my son Jayden was little he loved any opportunity to show off his favorite "ninja turtle" karate moves. He knew that when he saw uncle Kyle-O he was always willing to wrestle. I will never forget Kyle's scense of humor, he was always quick with his witty words. I remember one time in particular you were sparring with Jayden and he was getting mad because you had gotten the better of him. He yells out "I'm gonna knock you out", and in true Kyle fashion you smart back and say "oh yeah, your gonna get a triple knock out, I'll hit you, you'll hit the floor, and the ambulance will hit ninety going to the hospital." Those smart witty comebacks were something we always knew we could count on from you and they were never in short supply. We love you uncle Kyle-O. You will be missed.
