

Lecil William Skinner, III

November 25, 2003 - May 20, 2024

Lecil William Skinner, III a beloved son, cherished brother, devoted friend, and inspiration to all passed away peacefully in his sleep on May 20th, 2024. Born on November 25th, 2003 in Arab, Alabama, Lecil's life, was overflowing with accomplishments and touched the lives of many.

Lecil's legacy is defined by his boundless energy, compassionate spirit, and unwavering determination. He was known for his infectious smile and the way he could brighten any room. An exceptional individual, Lecil excelled in every endeavor he undertook. From a young age, he demonstrated an innate curiosity and a desire to learn, traits that served him well throughout his academic journey. He was not only a top student but also an athlete and leader, serving as the JROTC PT team commander and excelling in wrestling. His instructors and teammates admired his leadership and sportsmanship, qualities that set him apart.

Lecil faced a significant health challenge. Despite becoming very sick, he did not let it stop him. His resilience and determination saw him come back even stronger, inspiring those around him with his unwavering spirit. After graduating high school, Lecil channeled his energy and ambition into creating his own business, demonstrating his entrepreneurial spirit and innovative mindset.

Lecil's family was the cornerstone of his life. He is survived by his loving mother, Lisa Smith, who was his biggest supporter and confidante; his devoted stepfather, Bradley Smith, who provided guidance and encouragement; his older sister, Gayle Cobb, who shared countless cherished memories with him; and his older brothers, Zack Skinner and Jimi Smith, who were his role model and best friend. Their bond was unbreakable, and Lecil's memory will continue to inspire and guide his family, reminding them of the beauty of a life lived with purpose, love, and joy.

Lecil is also survived by his nieces, Kairi Skinner and Zeppelin Skinner; and his nephews, Dagon Skinner, Rex Alan Cobb III, and Brayden Cobb. His presence in their lives was a source of joy and inspiration, and his legacy will be carried forward through them.

Though his time with us was short, Lecil William Skinner III's spirit and legacy will live on, carried forward by his family and all who were touched by his life. His impact on those around him serves as a testament to his character and the positive influence he had on the world. Lecil will be deeply missed, but his memory will forever be a source of inspiration and strength.
