“ I too met Lisa through the David Cook fandom at RFH and it was like I had known her all my life. That's the way she was, always hugging, kissing and her loud laugh making everyone smile. She was sweet loud and Fun and I miss her. My favorite memory of her at the David Cook concerts was her asking David for his back pocket hankey ..... and their exchanges, were so funny. He always said "NO, but I love her" .....Rock on crazy girl and keep everyone laughing up there .....Rest in Peace sweet lady

“ I met Lisa through our love of David Cook and his vans after winning American Idol 2008. Lisa was so full of life and loved music and concerts. She also loved her Biological family as well as her David Cook family that began to grow as yrs went by. I have many fond memories of Lisa that I will always look back with a smile. But my heart aches for her family now. It's so painful to loose a mother, wife, and living friend! Praying for Gods love to sustain you at this difficult time. Know that Lisa will always be in your heart!!

As I lay here awake thinking about how I'm gonna say goodbye to you tonight. Memories coming flooding back of all of our wonderful fun times that I'll cherish forever. From Leary morning breakfast at huddle house to tattoos to music. No matter what we were doing we had fun and tons of laughs. Most recent cherished memory was the day I took a "Lisa Day" after neck surgery before returning to work. I came got you for the day. We had lunch at Sierras's, watching you eat cheese dip telling me how much you loved their cheese dip lol, then headed to LeFleir to have our nails and toenails done. We laughed until we cried that day because I'm deaf and didn't ear the guy right he was asking was the shape ok and I thought he was telling me to shake

Tammy Creel - January 07, 2020 at 02:22 AM

It off so I'm shaking my hands and you're rolling outta your chair telling the guy she can't hear nothing then telling me what he actually said. Then we went back to your house and talked for hours and hours. I'm gonna miss our long talks my friend as we e had so so many. I love you with my whole ❤️. Until I see you again 😭

“ Lisa, was such an amazing & caring person. She had the biggest heart & the brightest smile, in the whole wide world. We bonded over David Cook, 12 years ago & have been friends ever since. I never had the pleasure of actually meeting her in person, but I felt like I have known her.. all my life. After a year or so of talking back-and-forth through Messages or on Facebook, she saw that I had German Shepherd's and she would always say..I am going to have me a German Shepherd someday. That was another thing, we had in common.. was the love, for German Shepherd's. I am sure going to miss all the messages and stories we shared over the years and just the overall love and friendship from her. Rest easy now, Lisa.. you are no longer in pain. I can't wait to meet up with you in heaven, one day. ❤️

“ Lisa was such a bright light. Always smiling, laughing. Yes we did start becoming friends on FB because of the whole David Cook thing but it grew to more than that over the years. She always had a positive attitude, would send me encouraging messages when things got difficult for me and I tried my best to echo that back. I feel fortunate and lucky to have met her face to face in Nashville. I remember hearing a loud southern accent behind me while waiting in line for the Meet n greet and I instantly knew it was Lisa. Then it was like a reunion between 2 old friends. Gosh she made me laugh and smile that night. RIP sweetie. 🥹💔💔💔. I'll miss you. My prayers are with your family and friends. There will never be another one like you. Now you get to reunite with your mama, brother in heaven. Till we meet again. ❤️❤️❤️
