“ As one of her co-worker for only a short while, I can say that LuAnn's infectious kindness will last a lifetime. The first day I met her, I was greeted with her warm and giving personality. It just goes to show that one person can affect the lives of many in a profound and everlasting way. She was truly a gift to all who met her. Blessings to her family and friends, I know she will be missed..

“ LuAnn was such a great person. I worked with her at SY Technology back in the late 1990s where she looked out for me like a little brother as I was fresh out of college and living in an unfamiliar state far from home. I will never forget her, her kindness, and her friendship. May God bless the family with peace and comfort.
