Born in 1925 - Calvin Coolidge was the 30th president - roaring 20’s and prohibition was in full swing. During her teen years she experienced the Great Depression and as an adult she was faced with World War II, the Vietnam Era, the first man on the moon, and many other major historical events. Her life experiences made her the unique and the special lady she was.

Marie married the love of her life, Dewey M. “Phil” McDougal, who passed away in 2011. She retired from the Anniston Army Depot in Anniston, Alabama where she worked in Quality Assurance. She devoted her adult life to her family. She was a loving mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. She was of the Baptist faith and a member of Gilliam Springs Baptist Church. Marie was a genuine soul who loved doing for others. She especially enjoyed sharing her culinary skills. She enjoyed gardening and loved flowers. She was meticulous and a talented seamstress. My Aunt Marie was a beautiful lady but more importantly she was a beautiful lady on the inside. I know you are in a better place with no more pain and with Uncle Phil but I will miss you so much.
