“ Bro Marlin you will be missed greatly by us and all ur family and ur beloved, forever love, soul mate and friend and companion, Sis Jesse. We know u r are peace now and in no more pain. And this is a blessing from the Lord!! Bro Jimmy and I will always have a special place in our hearts for u both. Never will forget the time you and Sis Jesse helped in setting up our wedding. You even went the x mile and got us our wedding rings because we did not have any money to buy them. And set up our wedding dinner afterwards. You did not have to do this but u did. This is just the kind of people u are and was just always helping someone!! We just want u to know we look forward to seeing u again one day! But until that day rest in peace our dear Bro Marlin. “ He was the best friend a person could have. He welcomed me in with open arms many years ago when i was young and helped push me in the right direction for the wonderful life i have now. I so proud to have had the honor to call you my friend. Im so broken hearted cause its fishing time and we were gonna clean out the lakes. We will fish out heavens lakes one day my friend. You will be missed
