“ Sister Margaret was such a special person. She and my beloved mother-in-law Lois Brown were the best of friends and enjoyed each other on trips whether it was a trip to town shopping or a trip to the Smokies. Seems like I can just see Lois welcoming Sister Margaret to Heaven. They both were wonderful mothers and always took such good care of their families. I still consider my sweet mother-in-law one of my best friends ever and can't wait to rejoice with them both. The teaching and love of older women in a younger women's life is truly a gift from the Lord. I thank the Lord for both Sister Margaret and Sister Lois. Their legacy will live on in the many lives they have touched.
