This just breaks our hearts, no words can explain the pain. We were neighbors, and we always spoke and someone had conversations.

“ Dakota, don't ever forget the love your Mom showered you with for 18 years! You were the light of her life and she was so proud of you. I never talked to her without us talking about you. The last time I spoke with her, about a week ago, she was more concerned about you than anything else. She loved you dearly. Always remember the good times you guys had together, and her love for you! I love you & I'm only a phone call away.

“ I admired Mary Kay for her love of family. Especially her mother and her son, Dakota. She, like the ones of us that have lost our mothers, grieved deeply for her. I was there to see this and I new no words would heal her heart. Hopefully, as we all grieve her death those words will not heal the hearts of her family or friends, but let us all remember the most important thing, love and time will help with God's Holy Spirit leading us. Until we met again
