“ I had the honor of doing Mrs Mary's hair this past year and just seen her a few weeks ago. The first time the girls brought her to see me I absolutely fell in love with her! She was so sweet and thankful to get her hair done. We laughed the whole time they were here every time they came, I will miss her sweet smile and telling me what a wonderful job I did and she just loves her hair. The family is in my prayers, I know her sweet girls already miss her tremendously! Love y'all so much!!

“ To the entire Yarbrough family, my deepest sympathy goes to all of you. I have saw your Mother several times (usually with Lisa) and she always had a smile on her face and a nice comment to say. You can see in the pictures how very much your parents loved each other. My sympathy to each one of you and the hardest journey you have ever made has just started. If I can help in any way, please let me know. Patricia Busbey Hulsey

“ RIP Aunt Mag. I will miss you with all my heart. You always had something positive to say and were always kind to everyone. I regret that we did not have more time for Genealogy study. I would have loved to share with you all the background research that I accomplished. Say hello to my Daddy, Grandma and Grandpa. With much love, until we meet again.
