

Ms. Maxine Morrow Humphries

May 28, 1939 - February 18, 2025

With deep sadness we announce the passing of our beloved mother, Maxine Morrow Humphries. Maxine passed away Tuesday morning, February 18, 2025 at Diversicare of Arab. She was born on May 28, 1939, daughter of Carl D. Morrow and Gara Hyatt Morrow. She was a lifelong resident of Hulaco, Morgan County, Alabama and was the widow of Arthur Miles Humphries (DOD 5/19/1983). Maxine had worked and retired from Wal-Mart where she was employed as an associate. Until her health became an issue Maxine was an active member of her beloved church, Hebron Church of Christ.

She loved working outside in her flower gardens and growing vegetables. She loved being outdoors feeding the birds and taking care of her yard. Her faith, church and her family were extremely important to Maxine. She was so very proud of her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Their success and happiness meant much to her. She took immense pride, interest and love in them all, especially the grands and great grands.

She is survived by her sons and daughters in law; Dr. Carl A. and Luanne Humphries and Danny and Tanya Humphries; grandchildren, Suzanne Evans (Adam), Caroline Buchanan (Zac), Ashley Nease (Bradley), and Chase Humphries (Hunter); great grandchildren, Brody Nease, Aubrey Nease, Coy Humphries, Honey Humphries, Arthur Buchanan, Hank Evans and Luella Evans.

In addition to her parents, Carl and Gara Morrow, Maxine is preceded in death by her husband Arthur Humphries; infant son, Arthur Miles Humphries, Jr., sister, Shelba Jean Smith; and brothers, Coy D. Morrow and Charles (Jerry) Morrow.

Family, friends and guests will gather at 12:00 noon on Friday, February 21, 2025 for a visitation in order to reminisce, honor, share memories and acknowledge the powerful impact she had on each and every one of us. The funeral service will immediately follow beginning at 1:00 pm. Brother Ronald Earwood will be conducting services with Arab Heritage Memorial Chapel entrusted with arrangements. Pallbearers escorting Maxine to her final resting place in Hebron Church of Christ Cemetery will be Brody Nease, Chase Humphries, Adam Evans, Zac Buchanan, Mark Humphries and Kerry Humphries.

“ Mrs. Humphries' late husband was my granny's cousin. My thoughts are with her family and friends. I am sorry to hear of her passing. ”

“ When a child is taught love to have compassion on others it shows from their behaviors and attitudes. Even though, I personally did not know her, I know her son who has taken care of teaching consequences of medicine through his practice. I know that his Mother was a daughter of God and I can see the love compassion in her face. Very sorry for the families loss . Just remember all of the happy memories and these thoughts will bring comfort knowing that we all will be reunited with by the power of Jesus Christ and that will bring us joy and peace. ”
