“ In the short time so far I have had the pleasure of knowing Miss Ashleigh Hayes, she has shown me some of who she is, and she has touched my heart.

She has talked about her Momma and her Daddy and her Grandmother and her sister and nephews and cousins most of all. She's talked about her raising, and she's talked about her love for her Momma and Daddy, for all her family, and for home. I can know by virtue of talking with Ashleigh that Michael Hayes was a good and decent man. Her love for him pours out of her heart, plain and simple, serene and sincere, and it is beautiful.

There are tears in my eyes in the telling of it. Y'all raised you up a fine girl, and that's a testament to who you are.

I know that Michael Hayes is loved beyond all measure, I know that he is in Heaven, and I know that his spirit will comfort you all, guide you all, reassure you all, and send you signs along the way.

I know it deep down in my heart and soul. I know it like I know my own mind.

My heart, my love, and my ceaseless prayers are with you all.

And, I am so very sorry for your loss.

Love and grace.
