“ So many memories of your sweet wife and my dear friend I'm not sure where to start. Nancy and I met when I was married to Jody and I was pregnant with my second baby. Jody, Max Nancy and I played a lot of cards and ate a lot of meals together. We had a lot of great times together. I'm so sorry for your loss. I know she will live on in y'all's hearts forever as she will in mine.

I was there when Nancy and Max met and was so proud to be there with them when they married. I was fortunate and blessed to have shared so many good times with both in the early years of their marriage as Max was my very best friend and Nancy was absolutely stunning and the two were perfect for each other that was obvious. We lost track of each other over the years as so many military people do when their duty stations change and only recently were corresponding again, I was however lucky enough to get to hear her laugh again and talk a bit about those days way back when. I loved you both back then as I love you both now and I am so very sad for your loss of beautiful Nancy but I know there will be memories of her love for you all around for the rest of your life And in time they'll bring you joy and comfort. I love you Max and Semper Fi my brother
