“ I met Mr & Mrs Vaughn in 1986 when my parents William and Wanda Clements rented a house from them; I have special childhood memories of going up to her house and being there when she made pizzas and Peanutbutter brittle candy; and I will never forget when she bore her testimony of Jesus Christ and how powerful her story and testimony was; I know this special lady and her husband are there with my parents now; forever standing in the light of God. I send my deepest sympathy to the family.
