“ I met your parents (grandparents, or great grands) when they came to Arab Historic Village last fall. I liked them immediately and thought I would see them more but she seemed really weak that day. I saw him just before he passed at local Dollar General. I am so sorry that I didn't take better advantage of what time I had to get to know them better. I will be praying for comfort and peace for you in your loss of these precious people.
